

Other attachments

The rodeo bulls

We have both a black bull and a brown and white bull available to hire, both have red flashing eyes and soft rubber horns, if you have a preference then please state which one you would like when you are booking

Rudolph the reindeer

If your looking for Christmas entertainment then our bucking reindeer could just be the answer, with his red flashing nose and his soft rubber antlers Rudolph is sure to be very popular, this attachment has proven to be very popular during the Christmas period, so please book up early to avoid any disappointments.

Human Roulette

The human roulette is another good alternative to the rodeo bull, This is a large disc which spins you around until you can no longer hang on, then in turn you will land on the specially designed red and black inflatable which will be numbered, Once again great fun for everyone,

Shane the sheep

If you would like something different then why not try our Shane the sheep attachment instead of a bull, shane looks a lot more friendly than the bulls but be careful because he can also be the black sheep too,
